

The Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

25 January 1982

Dear Tom:

I found your paper entitled "Reflections on the U.S. Propaganda Posture" very interesting and much in line with my own thinking. It has been slow but I think we've been making some progress in pulling together an integrated communications apparatus for the U.S. Government. We haven't even tried to since the work of C. D. Jackson in the Eisenhower Administration.

I spent the Christmas holidays in Palm Beach and had a long talk with [redacted] both there and a few days later when he was in Washington during the Schmidt visit. He takes a dim view of working at his age while young people like you are in retirement. He says we should put you back to work.

I had hoped to be able to talk with you on your return from Bonn but that never happened. If you are coming up this way and could be persuaded to come for consultation I would like to have a talk sometime. I plan a trip to [redacted] the end of February and think it would be useful to see you before then if at all possible.

Best regards.

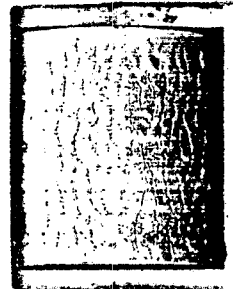

Yours

Bill Casey
William J. Casey

Executive Registry

62-2322

25X1

STAT

STAT

